Scenario 1

Wesley and Mark are trading their basketball card collection. Wesley really wants to trade Mark for this awesome and rare card. But he doesn't have anything good to trade him.

Honor God

Wesley proposes to do a fair trade with Mark for several of his cards for that one awesome and rare card. If Mark still doesn't want it, Wesley will ask Mark to hold on to the card until he can get something better to make a fair trade with.

Deception

Wesley makes up an untrue story about the rare and awesome card that Mark is holding. He tells Mark that it really is not worth that much and that his offer to trade him is actually a really great deal.

What would you do when you want something really bad, but you can't quite have it yet? Lie? Cheat? Steal? Ask? Wait?

What does the Bible say about honesty? Read Proverbs 11:3, and write it out.

Scenario 2
 Melissa's friends have just bought really beautiful pencil pouches. Melissa's allowance isn't enough to get one yet and it could take a few more weeks to save up. She really wants one sooner so she can be like her friends.

Honor God
 Melissa first asks her parents if they will get her one. But her parents say that she already has other pencil pouches and doesn't need to buy more. They suggest that she continue to save up her allowance and learn how to control her spending.

Deception
 Melissa knows that her parents will not buy it for her. So she instead sneaks into her mother's purse and takes out a little bit of money every day so she won't notice. She also takes a little bit out of her father's wallet too when he is not looking. In three days, she's able to get enough.

What does Exodus 20:15 say about this situation?

You should not _____.

What about Exodus 20:16?

You should not _____.

Melissa snuck into her mother's purse and her father's wallet. This is stealing! Stealing is a sin and against one of the Ten Commandments. Furthermore, sneaking is lying with your actions. Lying is a sin and against one of the Ten Commandments. Even lying with your actions is a sin in the eyes of god.

It is always better to be _____ and _____, without hiding anything in either our actions or our speech. As children of God, we shall honor our parents. When we save up and learn how to control our spending, we are indeed growing _____!
