God Keeps His Promises

Objective: To understand the different promises God has given us and their uses in our daily lives.

God always keeps His promises and never breaks them.

Instructions: Read the passages and summarize what each promise is or write out the verse. If there's more than one verse, you can choose one to write out.

Promises to Remember...

When We Are Afraid Genesis 28:15; Psalm 50:15	God will
When We Make Decisions Psalm 32:8	God will
When We Have Done Something Wrong and Confess Our Sins 1 John 1:9	God will
When We Are Having A Bad Day Matthew 11:28	God will
When We Ask God According to His Will in Prayer 1 John 5:14-15	God will
When We Are Being Tempted to Do Wrong 1 Corinthians 10:13	God will

Dare to Follow God's Teachings

Objective: To understand that we must follow God's teaching during ungodly times.

Instructions: Read each scenario and complete the ending to each one.

1. Rachel's best friend Danielle is having a special end-of-the-schoolyear pool party at her house on Saturday afternoon. Rachel is thinking about missing the afternoon RE class to go to the party at lunchtime. But, she knows this is not right.

Complete the rest of this scenario.

What would you do and what would you say to Danielle? How would you explain it?

What is the teaching or commandment from God regarding Sabbath?

2. During lunchtime at school, Matt's friend Greg will often steal ice cream sandwiches from the school cafeteria. One time, Greg asks Matt to help him steal one for him. Matt's not too sure about this, but Greg continues to say that he's never been caught before and that no one will find out.

Complete the rest of this scenario.

What would you do and what would you say to Greg?

What is the teaching or commandment from God regarding stealing?

3. Daniel and his family were over at his cousin Doug's house for dinner one evening. Doug's family does not go to church and he is not a believer. Both of them are in Doug's room after finishing dinner and Doug decides to tell Daniel about an R-rated movie he borrowed from his other school friend. This movie has been passed around between their friends and now Doug has it. He asks Daniel if he wants to watch it together. Daniel heard that this movie is very bad because it is filled with drugs, sex, and violence.

Complete the rest of this scenario.

What would you do and what would you say to Doug?

How should we be careful in what we see or watch?
